

Barrett has indicated, his words in the morning's prayer frequently gave meaning and sometimes acceptance to what had occurred the day before when it was maybe not so easy to do. It frequently gave clarity to what was to occur that day or in the days ahead that assisted me. And, like others, my family have lots of personal feelings toward Dr. Palmer, kind of joy, sorrow, as he indicated, trials that...of health that all of us experience from time to time in our families. Dr. Palmer served as the Minister that married Betty and I. He performed funeral services for both Betty's mother and my mother and he has counseled us many, many times. The last few days I was trying to think of what words I could use that would be meaningful to me to express what I feel toward Dr. Palmer. This Sunday, Betty and I went to his church, last Sunday, for those services, and toward the end of the services they sang a hymn and Dr. Palmer commented that he first learned that hymn in Swedish in his home in Chicago. And then I remembered the words that I would like to express because I, too, grew up when Palmer's Swedish was spoken, mostly...most of my parents spoke Swedish when I was not supposed to know what they were talking about, but you learn to pick up a lot of words that way. But my...and when my uncle and aunts came and they were telling some old stories they usually spoke in Swedish, but someone who lived in my home and was very special. I remember when I was little and I would do something, you know, whatever little kids do that's nice, and they would always say to me, "Tack sa mycket nott sma svenska pojka". So, Dr. Palmer, what...I would like to say thank you for what you have given to me, to my family, to my community and my state, "Tack sa mycket nott sma svenska pojka".
